Amendments To Nuisance Law Proposed

Council Acts On Ordinance Affecting Horses And Littering Of Lawns

Important amendments to Sierra Madre's nuisance ordinance adopted after a long drawn out hearing several years ago, are proposed in an ordinance read for the first time at Tuesday evening's meeting of the city council. It will probably be adopted at Tuesday evening's meeting of the city council. Announcements were made by the city council that the amendments to the ordinance are to make Sierra Madre an even more desirable city and to attract new home owners who want to use the trails and paths into the surrounding back mountain area.

One amendment regulates the maintenance of horses here, it being contended that certain provisions of the city's present ordinance relating to the keeping of horses is unenforceable, and inadequate.

The amendment permits ownership of two horses where corrales and runs are kept well sprinkled during the dry season and that corrales and stables shall be properly drained, with the drainage conducted to a covered sump or cesspool. Another requirement which has proved successful in other communities is that each stable shall be equipped with an electric flytrap and that the refuse in all stables and corrales shall be cleaned up daily and placed in a tight covered pit or box. It is also required that a tight wall or fence at least six feet high shall be built where a corral adjoins property on which a dwelling house is located. No corral or stable in which owner or owners are kept shall be maintained within 50 feet of an adjacent dwelling house. Where more than two horses are maintained the distance from an adjacent dwelling house, other than that of the owner, shall be not less than 100 feet.

A second amendment to the nuisance ordinance prohibits the indiscriminate scattering of manure and miscellaneous and unwanted advertising on lawns, porches and on the streets and highways. Many complaints have been received by the police department over the littering of lawns and doorways. Many residents complain that presence of this matter that has accumulated on their property was notice to thieves and marauders of their temporary absence and amounted to a practical invitation to looting of their homes, besides being a great nuisance. An amendment to the ordinance would permit property owners who desire these manure to erect a box on their premises, labeled "advertising" in which this matter could be deposited by distributors.

That owners of saddle and work horses, particularly the latter, may not be in complete agreement with the new ordinance was indicated when Attorney Joan L. Fitzgerald appeared before the council in behalf of Ramona avenue property owners, who, he said, were annoyed by manure staked on the premises of S. K. Lessey, 319 Ramona. He indicated they wished a much more drastic regulation than that which has prevailed until now. It developed that some time ago filed a complaint that the nuisance ordinance was either inadequate or being violated. Mr. Lessey, in reply, stated that he had been a resident in the same location for 15 years and that until very recently no complaint had been made concerning his stock.

Second Lecture In Church Series Sunday Evening

Harold S. Hull of Pasadena, official representative of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, which embraces friends of peace in all major countries, will be guest speaker at the Congregational Church, Sunday evening, March 5, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Hull's topic will be "The Struggle for Dynamic Peace."

This is one of a series being conducted at the church during the Lenten season on "The Battlegrounds of the Christian Life."

Important Report Expected From County Surveyor

A motion picture travelogue of South America and Bermuda is on the entertainment ticket for the San Gabriel Valley Associated Chambers of Commerce meeting which will be held at the American Legion clubhouse, La Verne, Tuesday evening, March 7th at 6:30 o'clock. Another pertinent message will be delivered by H. U. M. Higgins of the county surveyors office who will present matters of interest to the taxpayers of the valley.

Sierra Madreans desiring to attend the meeting are urged to make reservations early with William Burr, president of the local organization, by calling 7, or Charles Kinnear, secretary, at 4852.

Ordinance Requires City Permits For Lot Burning

Under the provisions of an ordinance passed on first meeting of the city council this week and which will probably become a law on March 14, property owners who wish to comply with the city's requirement that their lots be cleared of weeds and tall grass, will be obliged to secure a permit if the destruction is to be accomplished by burning. The new ordinance requires a permit for the burning of weeds or rubbish where the matter to be burned covers an area more than six square feet. The ordinance was recommended by the forest service and the local fire department as a safety measure.

Call Conservation Meeting Here For Wednesday March 15

A conservation meeting for all Sierra Madre citizens will be held Wednesday evening, March 15, at 7:30 o'clock. The meeting place has not been arranged as yet. It is hoped to have the local district ranger and forest supervisor as speakers.

Assessors Ready To Begin Work Here

Field deputies of the county assessors office started Wednesday on their annual job of assessing property throughout Los Angeles county for the 1939-40 tax rolls. A deputy arrived in Sierra Madre yesterday, made a survey and arranged for headquarters to be established for the local field assessors at the city hall. A field deputy will arrive next week to begin the house to house canvass and later will observe office hours in the city hall on a schedule yet to be arranged.

Reappoint Members Of Plan Commission

Notified Tuesday evening that the terms of Mrs. Sallie Osgood and Dr. John L. Woelcher as members of the city planning commission had expired, the city council at its meeting Tuesday evening reappointed both members for another term on motion of Councilman John Froehlich.

Tourists Are Frightened By Tax Laws

Kiwanians Told Easterners Shorten Vacations Here To Avoid Levies

With state and federal income taxes looming up before citizens in the very near future, Kiwanians were informed on the tax situation here in California by Judge Dudley Monk, chairman of the tax committee of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce, at their weekly meeting Tuesday. Judge Monk said that the system of taxation in California is driving tourists away from the state, rather than keeping them here for longer periods. He reasoned that people who come out here for the winter and stay for several months are being taxed heavily because of the fact that they are establishing residence here in California and in their home state as well.

A domicile clause in the California income tax structure seems to be doing the most damage and Judge Monk declared that citizens should urge their representatives to change this particular clause so that it will not frighten tourists away or shorten their visits.

Twelve members of the local club attended the district new-members meeting at the Glendora Woman's Club Tuesday evening.

Confusion In Dates Will Be Avoided

Chamber Of Commerce Acts To Promote Success Of Local Undertakings

A "calendar of events," long felt to be a need in Sierra Madre, is one of the first undertakings of the 1933 Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce. Its purpose is to keep the public informed of civic and organization meetings and events, and to avoid conflict in dates and consequent confusion. William Burr, Chamber president, will keep the calendar, which will be in book form, at the Edison Company office. Each organization is urged to enter dates of its regular meetings for 1939 in the book and special meetings and events should be entered just as soon as the date is known.

Success of the plan depends upon cooperation given by the organizations of the city, and in a letter sent out by the Chamber this week organization heads were urged to give specific information on meeting dates. A log of this type has been considered for some time, and just a few minutes' work to make the information available will insure its success.

When planning entertainments of any kind individuals and organizations will be asked to consult the calendar before selecting dates and arranged so that they will not conflict with other events already planned. It is believed this arrangement will contribute to the success of all entertainments and meetings. It was pointed out to Chamber of Commerce directors that recently three organizations arranged events on the same evening and all were destined disappointments from the standpoint of attendance, though each would have been an outstanding success had there been no conflict.

Observations

By Lee Shippey

ALL of us in Sierra Madre are proud of Elizabeth Page. She has fought a good fight against many discouragements and her triumph may be beyond estimation. Her publishers are the same people who made "Anthony Adverse" a great success. They decided months ago that "The Tree of Liberty," Miss Page's book, was worth getting behind as they got behind "Anthony Adverse" and as other publishers got behind "Gone With the Wind." They interested all America in this great historical novel before it appeared. The book is off to a good start as any book has got in recent years, and well may prove one of the great successes of all American literature. And it wasn't because Miss Page is famous or rich or has a pull. It is just because she has worked hard and conscientiously and won the respect of her New York publishers just as she has won that of all of us here.

SIERRA MADRE AUTHOR OF LATEST LITERARY SENSATION TO HEAR HER BOOK REVIEWED

"The Tree of Liberty," historical novel by Elizabeth Page, of this city, which appears to be making strides toward the best selling list, will be reviewed by Gladys Hatley Scoles, when she appears before the Sierra Madre Woman's Club next Wednesday, giving a current events talk and review.

An invitation has been extended to Miss Page by Mrs. Al Myers, club president, to be the guest of the club on that day and it is possible that she will accept if previous vacation plans

Fix Limit On Mariposa Paving

City To Help Other Streets With Its Allotment Of Gas Tax Funds

Unless every property owner on Mariposa avenue between Hermon and Lima streets signs up to have the street paved, sidewalks and curbs installed, within the next week and a half, the deal between the city and property owners will be called off. March 15 is the deadline when $1450, the amount that has to be raised, must be deposited at the Sierra Madre Savings Bank, it was announced yesterday at the city hall.

On February 28, $554.78 had been raised, and together with $323.51, the city's share to pay for about 360 feet of the city park frontage, a total of $878.29 is on deposit at the bank. According to Daniel H. Lewis, assistant street superintendent, $200 is expected to be raised this week, which will leave approximately $300 to come in between now and March 15.

Property owners pay for material only, the city taking care of labor and engineering costs, equipment rental and grading, through the city's allotment of gas tax funds.

About half the property owners on the south side of Mariposa avenue and half of the north side have already signed up. This week personal contact with the remaining property owners was made in the hope of getting everyone in on the paving project. Every property owner on the block must sign up. Mr. Lewis stressed, and the money now in the bank will be returned and the city's cooperation will be lifted.

Of particular interest is the fact that while the property owners are obliged to pay only for the materials, the labor cost, paid for by the city, runs about twice as much. Under an assessment act the cost for paving would run from five to ten times more.

Property owners on Manzanita avenue from Sunnyside to Michillinda are showing interest in having their curbs and pavement installed, under the same plan, merely paying for materials. Consideration is also being given the re-surfacing of Alegria avenue between Baldwin and Mountain Trail. The light asphalt surface has worn off and property owners have indicated a desire to have it resurfaced. The cost to owners will run approximately 30 cents per front foot, with the city paying for labor. On a 100-foot lot, the cost would be only about $30. A paving job is also in the offing on the north end of Sunnyside avenue between Grand View and Fairview avenues.

As long as the gas tax money holds out, the same procedure will be followed on any unpaved sidewalk if one hundred per cent of the affected property owners on any street sign up to have the work done.

They'll Be Jiggin' At St. Patrick's Dance Of Woman's Club

"Sweethearts of Melody," a ten-piece girl's orchestra, will furnish the music at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club St. Patrick's dance and card party, Saturday evening, March 18. The affair promises to be one of the most colorful of the spring season, and in keeping with the occasion, St. Patrick's Day, bright green decorations will be carried out. There will be door prizes, favors and a prize walk. Dancing begins at 9 o'clock at the clubhouse. The girls will play a series of old Irish jigs for those who can—or want to try.

Ready Now To Clean Debris Out Of Dam In Little Santa Anita

Construction of a roadway across to Little Santa Anita dam is scheduled to begin next week, the flood control district having secured all the necessary easements for the right of way. Machinery has been ordered transferred from La Crescenta to Sierra Madre and is due to arrive tomorrow or Monday. On completion of the road the huge task of cleaning out the basin behind the dam which was filled with silt and debris during the storm and flood of last March, will be started. The road is necessary to haul this matter out and it is expected that it will require several weeks.

The memorable flood, by the way, occurred just a year ago last night, and a year ago today several hundred WPA workers and large crews of Sierra Madreans were clearing away the debris and opening up city streets. The storm began on February 28 and grew in intensity until the afternoon and evening of March 2, subsiding on the morning of March 3, and leaving in its wake the greatest storm and flood damage in the history of Southern California.

Visitors Fall In Love With City And Buy A Home

Mr. and Mrs. John Creighton, Los Angeles, were so impressed with Sierra Madre as a home place during a visit with friends here, that they returned to buy a home at 169 North Baldwin avenue. The sale was consummated this week through the Sierra Madre Realty Company. Another sale recently closed in Sierra Madre was that of two houses located at 24 and 28 North Hermosa avenue. They were sold by Joe T. Russell, of Niles & Russell, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butler, who formerly lived at 729 West Alegria avenue. The Butlers plan to live in one home and rent the other.

Dangerous Prank Leaves People Subject To Injury

Twenty-three red lights blinking around the home of Leo Dougherty, 145 San Gabriel court, at midnight Sunday had many people guessing. Investigation showed that someone in a frivolous mood had completely encircled the Dougherty home with red lanterns, even placing one on the porch. Police gathered up the offending lights and returned some of them to their owners—eight to the Pasadena Water Department, nine to the Southern California Gas Company, three to the Los Angeles County Road Construction Company. Wednesday morning a solitary lantern was waiting to be claimed at the police department. The lamps, used as danger signals for motorists and pedestrians where work projects were under way, left danger spots without needed warning signals and police are looking for the misguided jokers.

City Begins Preparation For Its Fete

Great Old Wistaria Vine Comes To Life Fixing Annual Events In March

All is bustle at the Wistaria Vine Gardens. Warm sunshine during the last two weeks has brought distinct signs of life to the great Wistaria Vine and Sierra Madre is beginning preparations for its annual festival—the Wistaria Fete.

The purple-like buds have started to show over the more than an acre of branches and with predictions of continued summer-like weather, with less cool nights during the next two weeks, experts predict that the Fete must open not later than March 25. A period of cloudy, cool weather may delay it a few days but those in the know think thousands of lovely purple blooms will be out within two weeks. An uninterrupted period of warm weather for ten days may bring the Fete on as early as St. Patrick's day—March 17, opening date of the last two years.

This year's Fete will be a community event in its broadest sense, sponsored by a committee representing every organization within the city, all of which will be actively engaged in contributing to its success. This committee is being organized by a committee of the Chamber of Commerce consisting of Mrs. Cecily Allen, vice-president of the Chamber, and J. S. Billheimer, former president. Their first official act was to appoint a publicity committee consisting of L. R. Goshorn, editor and publisher of the SIERRA MADRE NEWS, Lee Shippey, L. A. Times columnist, Perley Pore Sheehan, newspaperman, author and scenarist, and John Q. Copeland, correspondent.

A feature of this year's Fete will be the exhibition of hundreds of varieties of rare and exotic plants and flowers, many of them recommended by an American research committee now ascertaining what of the more desirable South American flowering trees and shrubs may be successfully grown here.

One of the important events scheduled to occur during the fete will be the reorganization meeting of the City Planners Association of Southern California which will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday, April 1. Sierra Madre will act as host to the planners, and representatives from every Southland community are expected to attend.

The Floral Study Club of Pasadena will hold a luncheon at the Vine on Sunday, April 2, and Alfred Carl Hottes, editor of "Better Homes and Gardens" will speak at a dinner and program to be given at the Gardens Tuesday evening, April 4. Mr. Hottes is one of the leading Delamare Garden book-writers and this will be his only speaking appearance in the Southland. The event will be sponsored by the Pacific Rose Society, Sierra Madre Garden Club, and Garden Section of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club.

Other organization gatherings include a dinner meeting of the 18th district American Legion, and a meeting of the California League of Municipalities. Dates for these meetings will be fixed later.

Plans for an International Day during the fete are underway. Prize competitions for artists, poets and authors of one-act plays are being arranged.

Bethany Society To Celebrate Its 17th Birthday

The seventeenth birthday anniversary of Bethany Missionary Society will be celebrated at its monthly meeting next Tuesday at Bethany Church. A special offering will be contributed by all members which will be used for furnishing of the kitchen in the basement of the new Sunday School building.

Mrs. Myrtle Scott, head of the girls department of the Los Angeles Bible institute will speak in the morning. Miss Mary Lee, also of the Bible institute, will conduct devotions following luncheon, which will be served by Mrs. Jack Mitchell and committee. Otto Schoerner, one of six young men sent into China Turkistan several years ago by the China Inland Mission will speak on missionary activities in that district. Everyone is invited.

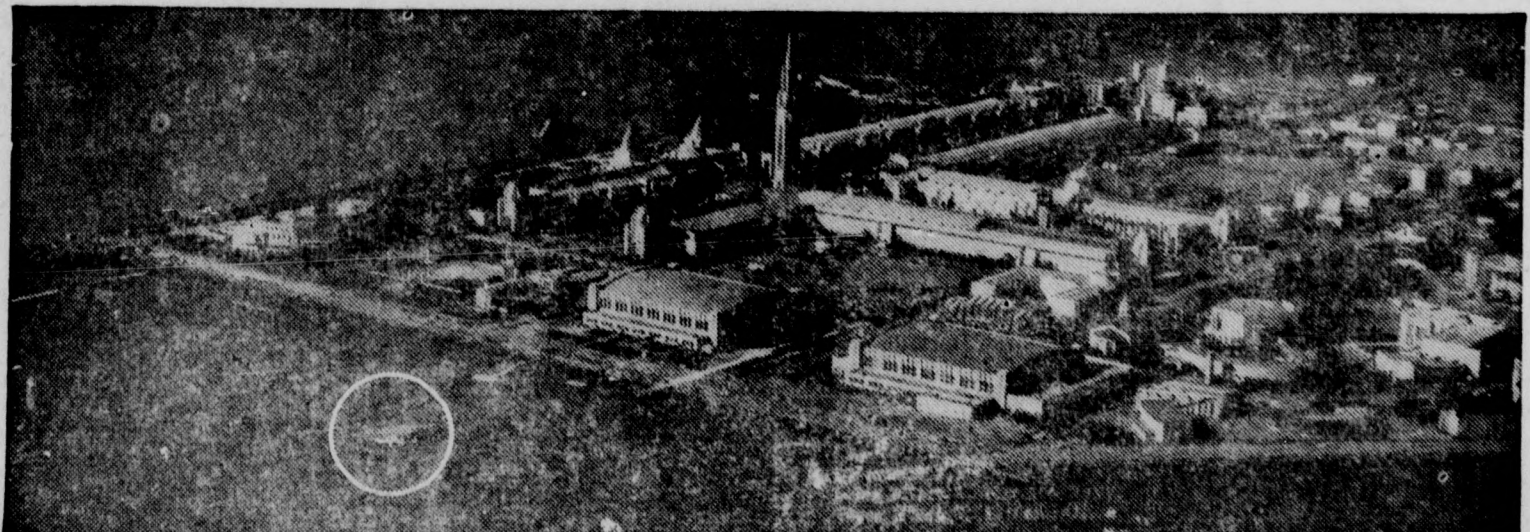

New Drug Store Will Be Opened Today

Young Sierra Madre ladies and their mothers will be especially interested in the very complete line of cosmetics in popular brands lining the shelves of the new Royal Cut-Rate Drug Store, 17 Kersting Court, that opens for business today.

The store's interior is bright and cheerful with the woodwork and walls painted a warm cream. This color scheme being carried throughout the store, which has a complete new prescription department.

The grand opening of the store has been set for March 10 and 11 with many novel ideas planned by Sam Perloff, who, with Mrs. Perloff have moved to Sierra Madre and are living at Hayden Court.

Trans Atlantic Taxi Leaves The Pacific

Giants of the air have practically annihilated distance. The world's largest transport plane indicated in the circle in the illustration above, took off leisurely from Treasure Island at the Golden Gate Exposition last Saturday on its way to Baltimore where it will enter into the trans-Atlantic passenger service. Dropping down leisurely to San Diego where it spent the night, it took off next morning and landed that afternoon on the water of Lake Pochar-train on New Orleans. On the afternoon of the third day it dropped down on the Chesapeake Bay at Baltimore, 200 miles from the New York World Fair.

The 74-passenger ship and crew of 20 is the world's largest airplane, dwarfing the Clipper ships that fly between San Francisco and China which are shown behind it above. It begins its trans-Atlantic regular schedule late this month.

Dr. F. von Rossell Mayer, chairman, American conferences on social relations of Pasadena, will discuss the social security act now before Congress and the additions being made to it, at the Sierra Madre grammar school Monday afternoon, March 6, at 3 o'clock, following the Parent-Teachers Association meeting. The meeting will be in the nature of an open forum and all Sierra Madreans are invited.

FIRE FLAME

By One of the Boys

A NEW fire plug just installed on Baldwin avenue near the postoffice proved a good spot for our drill Friday night. This plug will fill in another of the gaps where it would be necessary to stretch a long lay of hose. With pressure that requires two men at the nozzle, a good supply of water is available. So strong was the pressure that when Jim Heasley attempted to hold the nozzle he had to yell for Shorty Steinberger to come to his assistance.

The police department gathered up nearly fifty lanterns not so long ago. They had been placed about the house of a resident by someone who considered it a good joke. The lanterns were harmless enough around this house, but they were all removed from somewhere, where they were used as danger signals. Drivers of cars know how easy it would be to drive into an excavation or other similar works if it were not for the warning light about them. Most of these pranks are done by young people who should know better. It is too late after we read in the newspapers that a car was driven into a ditch and several people hurt or killed.

A number of residents have been wise enough to begin cutting down the weeds that are growing around their fences and garages. It won't be long before these weeds would be so high that a lot more work would be needed to get them down.

A. L. A. Activities

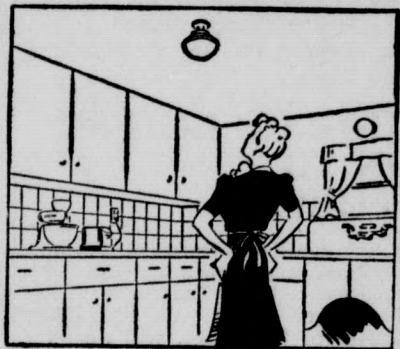

PRESIDENT Helene Smith attended the presidents' meeting in San Dimas Monday night. An announcement was made that the pot-luck supper held in conjunction with our Legion post will be discontinued.

Our hospital sewing quota has been completed. The last bed-jacket was sent to Prosper Grevillot at Sawtelle.

Past Presidents' named Hearts of 37 had their luncheon in Rosemead Wednesday and the George Washington idea was carried out for the entertainment. Capsule pals were revealed and each one received a lovely gift from her pal. Hostesses for the day were Nellie Moore, Pearl Clabaugh, and Helen Lovejoy. A pin was designed which each president will soon receive. Violet Huth having the idea. Each woman in San Fernando hospital was remembered by this group with a bouquet of violets and a hand-painted card on St. Valentine's Day.

YOUR HOME AND MINE

BY ANNE WILSON

Let's talk about the place you spend most of your working hours, the room which is your "home office"—the kitchen. Perhaps you take your kitchen for granted, assuming that there is little you can do about making it more convenient. As a matter of fact, there are a number of little things you can do to increase its efficiency. Consider the lighting. Do you have a bare bulb in the ceiling that furnishes listless light so that you have to squint as you pare the potatoes for dinner? Replace it with a special kitchen lighting fixture that uses a 100 watt globe and screws into any socket, and watch your kitchen snap to attention! That's a simple thing to do, but it will pay you dividends every night in tasks done faster and easier.

This improvement may convince you so firmly of the benefits of good lighting that you will have your electrician install lights at the sink, over the range and at every working counter. In the modern kitchen, every working space has its own light so that the homemaker never works in her own shadow.

Another way to add convenience to your kitchen is to put your small electrical cooking appliances within easy reach, and use them every day. Your waffle iron, coffee maker, grill and other electrical devices can save you time and steps, and it is to your advantage to take them off the high shelf and keep them in sight where they will be handy for use.

HAMILTONS BUILDING

Visiting Priest Reluctant To Bid Friends Farewell

Many sad farewells were exchanged as Very Rev. Father Hubert Osterman, O.M.C., boarded the Navajo at the Santa Fe station Sunday afternoon, bound for the East coast. During his brief stay of six weeks in Sierra Madre Fr. Hubert made many friends and was reluctant to go. Many and lovely were the compliments he extended the town and its friendly people. The visitor especially enjoyed the warm weather which is so "unusual" from that of his station in Seaside Park, New Jersey, during January and February.

Fr. Hubert is the uncle of Edward J. Osterman, 29 West Highland avenue, where he was domiciled during his stay and enjoyed many happy hours with the Osterman children.

New Street Numbers Big Help To Firemen And Visitors

Approved by the fire department and city authorities, Sierra Madre is putting on an unofficial house numbering campaign that is welcomed by the firemen and many householders. For a nominal sum, bold black letters on a white background are being painted on the curbing in front of residences, enabling visiting firemen to locate houses here and there in locating a residence when an alarm is turned in. The firemen report that it frequently requires several minutes to locate a house from which a blaze is reported and that much damage can be done in the short time necessary to locate an unnumbered dwelling, or one where the numbers are indistinct. John Ropp has just completed numbering nearly all of the houses on Sierra Madre blvd., and several of the other thoroughfares and announces that he will continue until he has covered the entire city.

Street Crew Does Good Job Cleaning Up Storm Damage

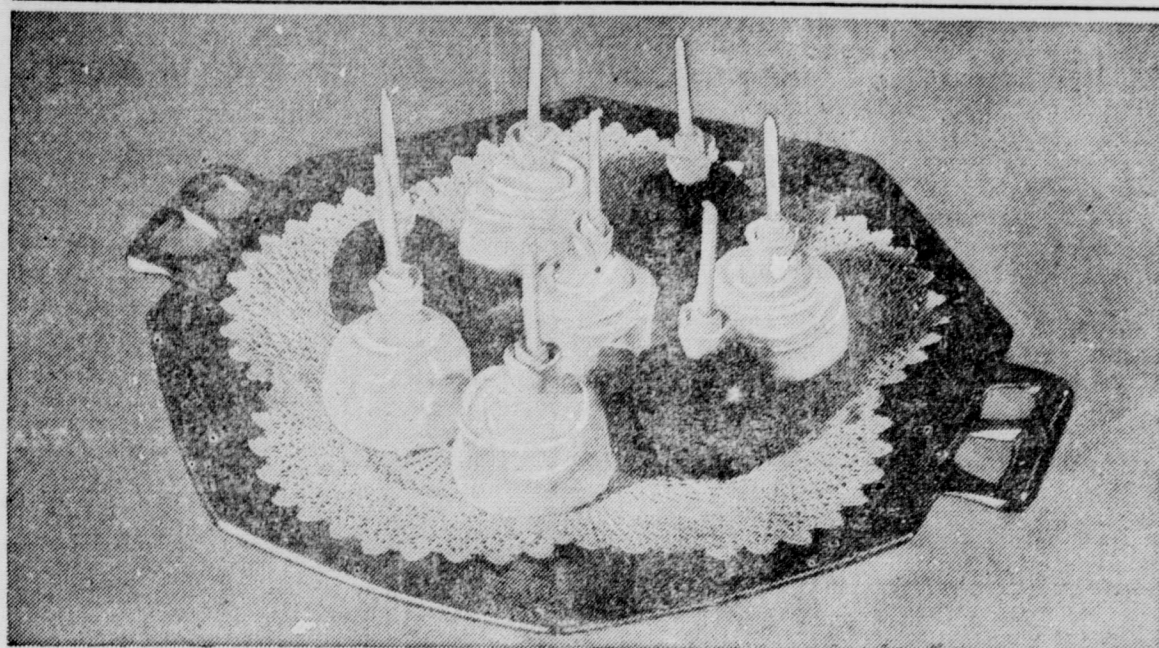

Sierra Madre's clean-up crew is due for a vote of thanks for the excellent job they did after the recent wind storm. No extra men were put on to aid in the work, and the city streets, compared with others in the foothill area, are in good shape. In many cases trees in front of private residences blew down, and while the city had no report of them, the clean-up crew took care of the removal. They did a fine job in a short time.

Surprise for a Birthday! Many Cakes Instead of One

NEXT time someone in your family has a birthday, try something different! Instead of the usual birthday cake, make varied chocolate and pastel-iced cup cakes. On the top of each place a small candle in a holder, and group as in the illustration. The result will be something lovely to remember!

Here is a recipe from Schraff's restaurants for home-made cakes:

1/2 cup milk 1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sugar 2 eggs well beaten
1/3 cup butter 1/8 teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 2/3 cups sifted pastry flour

Cream butter and sugar well. Beat in eggs slowly and continue creaming until mixture is very light. Sift flour with baking powder and salt several times, and add to mixture alternately with the milk. Then add vanilla. Bake in small cup cake tins in a moderately hot oven. Frost upside down.

To obtain clear, pure icing colors, divide your white icing into as many parts as you wish, placing each in a separate bowl. Tint with a few drops of a different vegetable coloring for each.

RELIEF COSTS MORE THAN DOUBLE CALIFORNIA TAXES IN 5-YEAR PERIOD

By RALPH H. TAYLOR
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

THE beggar with his tin cup, standing dejectedly on the street corner, asking alms, is seldom seen in California in this era of direct relief, work relief, pensions and social security.

But there is undeniable evidence that California has more professional paupers than at any other time in its history — and that the Nation at large is faced with the problem of a growing class of relief-bred Americans who collect their alms in government checks instead of using the tin cup.

Relief has been made more attractive to the indolent and lazy than honest labor.

And the stigma that once attached to charity has been replaced by the quick stigma that government owes every person a living.

The fundamental fact that government is merely a composite of the people — and that the person on relief, even though his check comes from a government bureau, is actually living on his neighbors — seems to have been completely obscured.

That may seem, at first glance, a harsh indictment. But it is also a harsh reality — a condition that both State and national leaders readily admit privately, and that some are willing to discuss publicly.

The constant mounting demands for relief funds (1938 expenditures reached a new all-time high) threaten to bankrupt both the State and Federal governments unless a halt is called. California's tax payments to the Federal government, for example, have more than doubled during the past five years — largely as a result of relief costs. And the record-breaking State budget now pending before the Legislature calls for some $60,000,000 in new taxes — largely as a result of increasing relief expenditures. But even that is only a part of the story, for relief costs, in the main, are being financed on a borrow-as-you-go basis — with a constantly pyramiding debt that eventually must be paid, with compound interest, by workers, farmers, business men and every class of producer and taxpayer.

Still more serious, according to students of the problem, is the fact that relief has been so easy to obtain — and in many cases so liberal — that hundreds of thousands of relief recipients have ceased to seek work or want work in private industry and are likely to become permanent dependents of governments.

And aggravating the problem is a disposition on the part of many employed persons to abandon the old-fashioned habit of saving against a rainy day because they feel the government will take care of them if they lose their jobs.

California, according to latest official figures, has some 280,000 persons on the dole — and probably tens of thousands who are receiving partial support from government in one form or another. And working California — labor, the farmer, the businessman and the professional man — is footing the bill, with between 20 and 25 per cent of its income going to pay federal, state and local taxes!

It is to be hoped that the State Legislature, when it considers the State budget and the relief problems, will consider the welfare of the State as a whole. It is to be hoped that some action will be taken to weed out relief chiselers and professional paupers who are taking "a free ride" at the expense of their more industrious neighbors. It is to be hoped that something will be done to prevent the spread of dole-addiction and to restore self-respect and industrious habits.

The person who wants work and can't get it is deserving of public aid until he is able to become self-supporting. And the person unable to work like-wise is entitled to public support. But California relief rolls should be thoroughly purged of the lazy and indolent who have the fallacious idea that the government owes them a living. The government owes them nothing. The government owes no one a living — except those who are willing to work for it.

Three Sharp Eyed Sierra Madreans Win Prizes

Three sharp eyed Sierra Madreans won prizes Wednesday in the misspelled word contest held by Hartman's Drug Store. Celebrating the 30th anniversary of the Rexall Company the contest was national in scope and continued through February.

Miss Minnie Stinman won first prize with a perfect score of 84 words. She was given the set of aluminum cooking utensils which has been on display at Hartman's. Ray Leach won second prize, a Brownie camera, with his entry of 72 words; and Yoneka Aisawa carried off third prize, a set of bath powder, sals, etc., also with a score of 72 words.

Row Looms Over Plan To Alter Supervisors Districts

Plans to further revise the boundary line of the first supervisorial district, in which Sierra Madre is located, by the elimination from it of all the Long Beach area it now includes, are reported in Los Angeles. The alleged plan would include all of Long Beach in the fourth district now represented by Supervisor Oscar Hauge, of Long Beach. The supervisors have until the first Tuesday in November to make any changes in supervisorial district boundaries.

Supervisor William A. Smith, new representative of this district, says he will vigorously oppose any plans to change the district boundaries. Hauge says he will favor any boundary changes necessary to equalize the population and voting strength of the fifth district.

At The Grammar School

The scheduled rubber game between St. Rita's and our 7-A baseball teams last Friday was not played because only five or six St. Rita's players came down. We hope the long-postponed game can be played today. The seventh grade boys are still trying to keep in practice after school with Coach S. E. McElfresh, but the lack of a real game is getting us down.

The seventh grade has elected a staff to write about our school happenings for the SIERRA MADRE NEWS. Editor is Goodrich Simmons and the rest of the staff includes William Simmons, assistant editor; Marilyn Albright and Ada May Hill, reporters; Marion Carleton, Allan —Chester Cohen.

McLeod and the rest of the 7th grade.

The 7-2 grade is working on various projects, such as the Erie Canal, Panama Canal, the Erie West, Annapolis and many others. In Mrs. Leonard's sewing class some of the 7-2 girls are starting their dresses and others are just finishing the shorts which were started in the 7-1 grade.

In Miss Lusted's 7th grade art class the girls are making portraits of themselves, one-fourth of their actual size.

—Aubrey Maibon.

The "Nissaki" group of Camp Fire Girls passed their second rank, Wood Gatherers, last Friday. A little while back they passed their first rank called "Trail Seeker."

The Friendly Indian Club of our school invites boys of the school from nine to 12 years old to join. We have had many feeds in the last few months and many activities. We earn feathers for doing good things and helping in the home. The group we have organized has been very successful. The Friendly Indian are Richard Patterson, chief; Beecher

Wallace, wampum bearer; Nathan Tarr, Indian runner; Charles Root, tom-tom beater; Dirk Cable, medicine man; David Smedly, Fred Kinkle and Jack Hitchcock. Our instructor and big chief of the tribe is S. E. McElfresh, 7th grade teacher. We hold pow-wow's every week and make many things that Indians had, like shields, blankets and tomahawks, etc. —Dirk Cable.

New Building Far Ahead Of Last Year

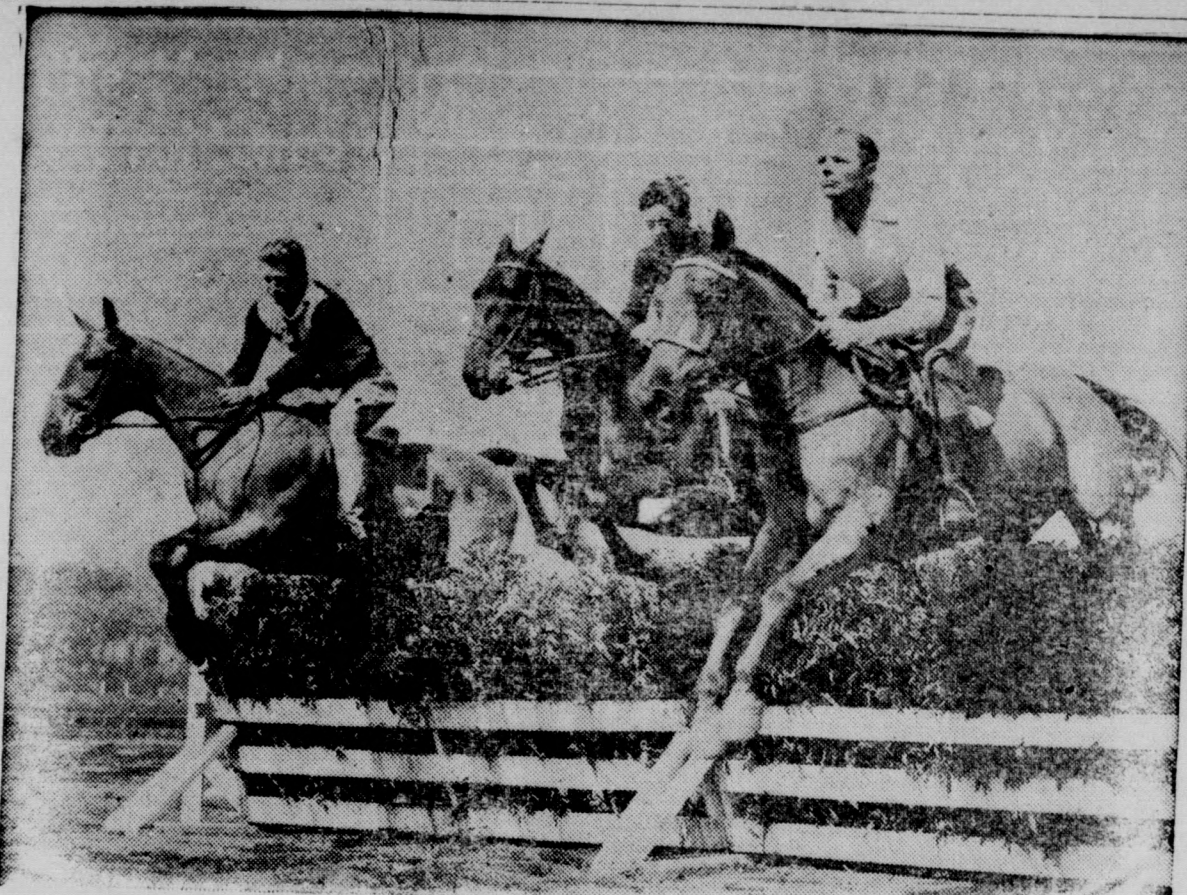

Many Permits Issued For Enlargements, Alterations And Repairs

New building and improvement activity in Sierra Madre for February nearly doubled that of last year, according to figures released this week by Building Inspector William Lees. The amount spent this month on new building and improvements was $25,495, compared to $13,778 for February 1938. The total for 1939 to date is $34,019.

A breakdown of the February figures shows building permits issued as follows: Safeway Store, 110 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., new building; Sierra Market, 58 West Sierra Madre Blvd., new awning; Eugene Hanson, Fern Glen Lodge, repairs; Meta B. Bergen, 184 Auburn, remodeling; D. Funkhouser, 657 Woodland Drive, remodeling; Mrs. Fannel Sea, 198 West Montecito avenue, new foundation; H. K. Pottenger, 500 Audubon Way, repairs; J. C. Jensen, 18 Vista Circle, new building; Bethany Church, North Baldwin avenue, new Sunday school building; J. I. Irwin, 220 West Carter avenue, addition. Former Governor Merriam took out a permit to remodel and enlarge his new home at 31 East Mira Monte avenue.

Perhaps the recent wind storm damaged a number of roofs around the city, but whatever the reason re-roofing activity was heavy during February. Permits to re-roof were issued to Mrs. Virginia Atterbury, 127 North Lima street; Mrs. Askew, 477 North Baldwin avenue; Mrs. Anna Block, 544 Oakdale drive; Dr. Brady, 120 West Esperanza; E. K. Wood, 38 E. Mira Monte avenue; Albert Bray, 283 Mari-rosa; Henry Olson, 20 South Baldwin; Roberts Market; Frank Hammond, 80 West Mira Monte and C. Sandage, 158 West Highland.

Mrs. R. P. Dow of Laguna Beach, sister of E. D. Burbank, is spending several days at the Burbank home, 42 East Carter avenue.

Timber toppers train for coming steeplechase races which are carded six consecutive Sundays, February 26-April 2 at Riviera Country Club. Increased purses are attracting a bigger field of entries than ever. Outstanding horses like Hopeful Jim, owned by Mrs. Jack Whitney, and officials present an even more successful meeting than the recent fall races which proved one of the outstanding attractions of recent years. Thousands of fans crowded the galleries each Sunday to enjoy the fast and spectacular spills. Left to right, Happy Williams on Bellerino, Dick Lord on Sir Halifax and Capt. Duke Coulter astride Comanche.

17 Starters Listed For Tomorrow's Wide Open Santa Anita Handicap

"Seventeen starters in a wide-open race" is the prediction for the fifth running of the $100,000-added Santa Anita Handicap on Saturday by General Manager Charles H. Strub of the Los Angeles Turf Club. He adds that an attendance of more than 60,000 is expected to see the first race at 1 p.m., and the big feature at 4:12 p.m.

Cravat's smashing stretch run in the San Antonio last Saturday has boomed the New York horse into favoritism with Kayak II, the South American Whichee, a sprint horse, is also getting support that he can last for the 1 1/4 miles with the light weight of 112 pounds.

There are strong arguments being advanced for more than a dozen solid contenders. They figure the champion filly, Jacala, had no chance in her first start after dwelling at the start and will improve. Thanksgiving will also step up from the benefit of having a race under his belt. Front-runners like Specify and Today have to be given consideration, although the distance is not in their favor. Gosum will find the handicap route in his favor, and Sordado showed enough to possibly bring about an improvement to again put him back into the picture.

Main Man, Heffly, Don Mike, Honey Cloud, Congressman and others will not want for backers to make the Big 'Cap the most open race of all the preceding runnings. The probable line-up of weight, horse, jockey and owner, will be:

124 Sordado (Neves) Howard
120 Cravat (Robertson) Martin
120 Don Mike (Longden) Binglin
119 Jacala (Peters) E. Friendly
118 Thanksgiving (Wall) Mrs. Parker Corning
117 Heffly (Richards) Vanderbilt
117 Main Man (Bierman) Mayer
115 Specify (Corbett) Silver State
112 Honey Cloud (—) Mrs. Abel
112 Whichee (James) A. T. C.
112 Today (Couci) N. McCarthy
110 Congressman (—) Turner, Jr.
110 Kayak II (Adams) Howard
109 Gosum (Gray) N. A. Howard
109 Sweepalot (—) Mrs. Curland
106 Flying Lee (—) Hal Headley

This Welcome to Greet 1939 Visitors

Pretty All-Year Club Welcomette Margaret Young exhibits design of 1939 California automobile guest sticker which will be placed by the California Department of Motor Vehicles on half a million out-of-state automobiles. Hot Wates For Every Home 1939 Slogan Of Southland Appliance Dealers

Sierra Madre gas appliance dealers, acting in cooperation with Southern Counties Gas company, today joined in a Southern California-wide campaign to bring the benefits of automatic water heating to every home in the Southland. Feature of the campaign is a gift of a sensational new "Sprayfoam" dishwasher to every person who purchases a "qualified" automatic gas water heater.

"In affording an opportunity for gas users to secure one of these ingenious labor-saving dishwashing devices, the gas industry wishes to bring home to the people here the fact that no family today need be without convenience, comfort and healthfulness of a continuous, automatic supply of hot water for every household use," Justin M. Kennedy, district manager of Southern Counties Gas company states.

"Engineers have developed various types of reasonably priced domestic gas water heaters that are wholly self-operating, extremely economical and which assure a constant supply of hot water day and night. In addition, California is blessed with an enormous supply of natural gas. "The automatic gas water heater, contrary to the notion held by some people, operates very economically. A heat control regulates the burners so that only the amount of gas necessary to keep water at a fixed temperature is consumed. Adequate insulation around the tank on the storage type heaters reduces heat losses."

Family Tradition Is Followed In Child's Christening

Christening services for John Plummer Donelan, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. James P. Donelan were conducted Sunday afternoon at the Donelan residence with Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard officiating. Mrs. W. H. Scovins, sister of Dr. Donelan, assumed the responsibilities of godmother, and Dr. Paul Spelbring, brother of Mrs. Donelan, those of godfather. The occasion had been postponed so that it would be celebrated on the birthday anniversary of Mrs. J. M. Donelan, grandmother, on whose natal day all of the Donelan children have been christened.

Mr. Forbes has served as a staff member of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, Evening Mail and World-Telegram of New York City; The Stars and Stripes, Pershing A.E.F. newspaper during the war, and as city editor of the Providence Journal, from which he is now on indefinite leave. EXPO VISITORS FIND BAY CITY CROWDED

Postpone Dinner To Float Committee To March 10

Due to a conflicting date with another civic organization meeting, the Float Committee dinner which was scheduled for tonight being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and will be held at the Wistaria Vine Gardens at 6:30 p.m.

Colored pictures of the parade will be shown as well as pictures of "Seeing Nellie Home," the Wistaria Town's prize-winning entry in the parade. A musical program will be part of the entertainment and according to announcement cards, there will be "few speeches and no unnecessary introductions."

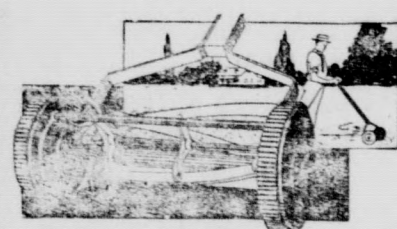

The dinner directly honors designers of the float and all those connected with its construction as well as the girls and boys who appeared on it during the rose parade—Daphne Alley, Anna Sue Adwell, Katherine McLelland and Bernard Wynn.

Dr. and Mrs. C. L. T. Herbert enjoyed renewing many old friendships when they attended the Iowa State picnic at Lincoln Park Saturday.

What A Girl Sees Ramblin' 'Round

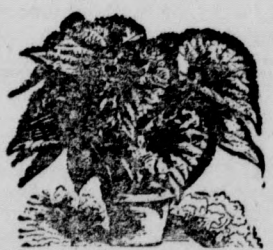

STYLES in jewelry as well as clothes seem to run in cycles. Recently we were interested in some costume jewelry dating back many years. It belonged to Miss Grace Mayhew of our fair city, who has so many interesting articles and personal possessions. One piece in particular struck our fancy... it was just half of a ring... three rows of stones, two of purple amethyst and a row of seed pearls in the middle... Then a few days later we noticed the same type of ring was advertised by a very smart jewelry store as a "cocktail ring". The illustration showed an exact replica of the piece of jewelry we had admired—same stones and all... Another quaint article was a lady's "collar button"... about the size of a nickel, decorated by hand in soft blues and pinks, bearing the portrait of a smiling young boy... These "collar buttons" were used in the days when a lady's shirtwaist buttoned closely around her throat... A pin and dainty earrings of black onyx, shaped like flowers, centered with a seed pearl was also very charming... Rosemead's Chamber of Commerce has hit upon an idea that sounds pretty good... It has appointed a member of the fair sex as official hostess of the organization... Her chief duty is to welcome newcomers to the city... aid them in whatever way she can and make them feel at home... Under the best of circumstances there is bound to be a lost feeling when a family packs up and leaves a friendly community to make its home in a strange city... and how comforting it must be to newcomers to know that they are welcome... Anne Morrow Lindberg in "Listen! The Wind" said that one of the most pleasant things she knew was being warmly welcomed by friendly people when she and her husband stopped at small islands between Africa and South America to refuel on their return trip... Just to know that they were wanted and expected, more than compensated for any trials or tribulations they might encounter during their brief visit... Newcomers to Rosemead will very likely feel the same way when they are cordially greeted by the official hostess... and whether their stay is short or long they will always have a kindly feeling toward the city... Back to the Lindberghs again... seven years ago Wednesday, March 1, the two-year old son of the flying couple was kidnapped.

A Sierra Madrean for 51 years, Andrew Olsen who lives at 53 Suffolk avenue, has been a subscriber to THE NEWS since it was first published 32 years ago... and says he simply could not get along without it... When he stopped in at THE NEWS office the other day to renew his subscription he said that many changes had taken place in the city and so many new people have moved in that he scarcely recognizes the names but his interest in THE NEWS is as deep now as it was over a quarter of a century ago... "I don't see," he said, "how anyone can expect to know what is going on here if they are not subscribers to the paper... it is a great joy to us."

A traveler just back from Palestine speaks with positiveness on the issue behind this trouble of Jewish and Arabian inhabitants. He says that German trouble-makers are sent from Berlin to agitate these racial differences which for centuries did not exist to any disturbing degree. Why Hitler out there? As a means, perhaps, to pry John Bull out of the way and so to make easier the fulfillment of that old Berlin-to-Bagdad that the old Kaiser used to dream about.

Foods of the Hour

By FLORENCE MATHENY
Home Economist, Southern Counties Gas Co.

LET the third month arrive or exit gently with sunshine, or noisily with storms, the lamb of March is with us again. Frisky symbol of an approaching springtime, fluffy sign of our windy month, tender lamb is a meal fit for any month—and don't forget the mint.

LAMB CHOPLETS

1 lamb breast
Ground Lamb
Salt, Pepper

Have the meat retailer remove breast bone, cut a pocket from end of breast and stuff very tightly with ground lamb. Chill thoroughly. Slice between ribs to make individual servings. Braise or broil.

To braise: Brown in hot fat on both sides, season and add ¼ cupful water. Cover tightly, lower flame to simmer and cook about 45 minutes.

To broil: Place on broiler rack so surface of meat is 3 inches below flame. Brown on one side; season, turn and brown on second side, allowing about 7 to 8 minutes per side. Only one turning is necessary. Serves 8.

ROAST LEG OF LAMB

Select Leg of Lamb with or without part of loin; do not remove fell, or thick skin, which protects meat and shortens roasting time. Wipe with a damp cloth, sprinkle with salt and pepper, and rub well with fat. Lay meat skin side down on rack in shallow pan. Insert meat thermometer into the thick round of muscle so that bulb is directly in center of muscle. If lamb is very lean, several strips of bacon or fat pork may be put on top. Roast, uncovered, in a moderately slow gas oven (300-324° F.) until meat thermometer registers desired degree of doneness for inside of meat. This will take 25-30 minutes per pound for medium-done meat; 30-35 minutes per pound for well done meat. Do not add water and do not baste.

Cuts from the loin, rack, the breast and shoulder, boned and rolled, may be roasted in this way; but they require additional time per pound for total roasting. Allow about 3-4 pound per portion.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. CHARLES STUMAR

NEW YORK CHANGED VASTLY IN 30 YEARS

Mrs. Agnes Woehler of 497 Ramona avenue returned to Sierra Madre Saturday from a trip through Panama to New York City, where she had not visited for 30 years. "During that time," said Mrs. Woehler, "the city has changed so greatly that I was able to recognize only three buildings." While in New York Mrs. Woehler attended all of the best Broadway plays, and enjoyed visiting with friends. She returned by way of New Orleans, where she stopped for the Mardi Gras, and particularly enjoyed the beauty of that city, and the jasmine and azaleas which were in full bloom at the time of her visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dane, 730 Orange Drive, were guests of Charles Dodge at the ice hockey game between USC and Loyola at Westwood Saturday evening.

Feel As Chipper As A Bird!
Try Our Physical Conditioning
● Beauty is often said to be skin deep, but in truth, beautiful complexion and glamorous appeal are equally dependent upon proper body health. Accumulated toxin poisons that are not properly circulated and eliminated often cause skin conditions and sallow complexions that can only be corrected by proper body health.
TURKISH BATHS . . . Through this beneficial vapor-bath, combined with penetrating Infra-Red Rays, the bath provides the proper stimulation for circulation, eliminating poisonous toxins through normal channels. This breaks down fatty deposits and eliminates cause of fatigue and lack of beauty. We recommend proper body health accomplished through regular bath and massage treatments. Let us explain the benefits and effects of this treatment on your Health and Beauty. Come in for a trial treatment—It will make you feel alert and alive.
